Thank you for sponsoring a student.

By using our own labor to package the meals, we can keep the cost of the meals to a minimum. Currently that is about 10 cents per meal. We must pay for the raw product that we put in the meals. From past experience, Kids Against Hunger has determined that on average, a worker can produce 300 meals during a 2-hour shift. Based on that, we are asking each worker to contribute $30 to pay for the materials used in the 300 meals they produce. Many students have done various activities to earn or raise the needed funds. However, a number of students, do not have the resources to come up with the suggested $30.

We want all students and volunteers to have the opportunity to work. We will not turn anyone away from working based on their ability to contribute the $30. Though the sponsorships of generous people, everyone will have the satisfaction of being able to help the less fortunate and hungry people of our world.
